VACUUM CLEANERS TRASH CARRIED TO BASEMENT FOR BIG BUILDING

El Paso's new skyscrapers will be as clean as the proverbial Puritan kitchen. Vacuum cleaning plants are to be installed in the Roberts-Banner building, the American National bank building and the Anson Mills building. The engines and air compressors will be in the basement and will be connected by a tube system to all parts of the buildings. To these pipes can be attached the hose and cleaning parts of the Vacuum cleaners by which the floors of the building may be swept. As the dirt and trush is taken up from the floors It will be carried to the basement where it will be burned.
